

The SOUTHERN FOREST HERITAGE MUSEUM (SFHM) is membership driven and operates primarily with a volunteer force making things happen. Because we are funded exclusively through membership fees, donations, fundraisers, and grants, we recognize every day how important YOU are. By joining the museum as a member, you provide much-needed general operating funds to help keep our doors open. The museum is a charitable 501c3 organization allowing your dues to be tax-deductible as allowed by law.

As a 2017 SFHM member you receive free admission, invitation to members-only exhibitions, free or discounted education classes, museum store discount on selected items, and discounts on trips and tours. Plus, you have the satisfaction of contributing to the oldest complete sawmill facility in the South. This complex is unique in that it is a complete sawmill complex dating from the early 20th century, and that it has the most complete collection of steam-powered logging and milling equipment known to exist. In addition, SFHM is now home to a rare CCC exhibit focusing on the Civilian Conservation Corps of Louisiana.

We ask you to become a member and a part of SFHM by completing the Membership Application. Mail the application and your membership fee to the address provided or bring to SFHM. You may join at any level. For additional membership information, you may contact SFHM at 318-748-8404.
